POPE CREATES 15 MORE CARDINALS

By Associated Press.

Rome, May 25.—At a secret consistory held at the Vatican this morning, Pope Pius created fifteen new cardinals. A number of bishops of various countries were confirmed in their sees at the same time. Official announcement was made of the creation of Monsignor Bello, Patriarch of Lisbon, as cardinal. The ceremony was accompanied by the brilliancy usual to such occasions.

The names of the cardinals are: Monsignor Louis Nazare Begue, Archbishop of Quebec; Monsignor Guisazola y Mendez, Archbishop of Toledo, Spain; Monsignor Domenico Sestini, Assessor of the Congregation of the Holy Office; Monsignor Della Chiefe, Archbishop of Bologna, Italy; Monsignor John C. Serenock, France.

The Pope appointed Cardinal Francis Della Volpe to the office of chamberlain, in which position he will direct the affairs of the church during the conclave.

HOME RULE GIVEN BIG MAJORITY

By Associated Press.

Burlington, Iowa, May 25.—Two children were almost instantly killed when a horse, struck by an automobile in which they were riding, was thrown into the tonneau. The horse struck the heads of the children, a boy of 12 and a girl of 3, with such force as to fracture their skulls. The children were driving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetger, both of whom were slightly hurt when the automobile overturned.

LAW ANNULLED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—The New York state hours of service law was today annulled as being in conflict with the Federal hours of service law.

GENERAL OBREGON, A DARING REBEL, FIGHTING HUERTA.
General Obregon is one of Villa's right hand men in the present campaign. Obregon has a reputation in Mexico for great daring, and he has led Rebels to victory in many of the engagements in northern Mexico.

FORGOT REBS ENJOY FIRING
By Associated Press.
On Board the United States Battleship California, Mazatlin, Mexico, May 24.—By wireless to Santiago, May 25.—A twenty-one gun salute by the American and Japanese warships in the harbor, and by the Federal fortifications in the city, was misunderstood by the besieging Constitutionalists as an attack on the city, instead of a tribute to the late Dowager Empress of Japan. General Obregon's batteries opened a spirited fire on the city and a number of shells and a hail of machine gun bullets fell in the streets.

The Huerta steamer, Herrera, successfully ran the Constitutional shore battery today and landed two pieces of artillery and a quantity of provisions for the besieged Federal army. Provisions in the city are running low, however, and hunger has driven many of the poorer residents to the port. Looting is increasing and as the municipal authorities fled on the gunboat, Herrera, sometime ago the problem of dealing with a horde of petty criminals is added to the troubles of the Federal military commander.

VACATION DAYS

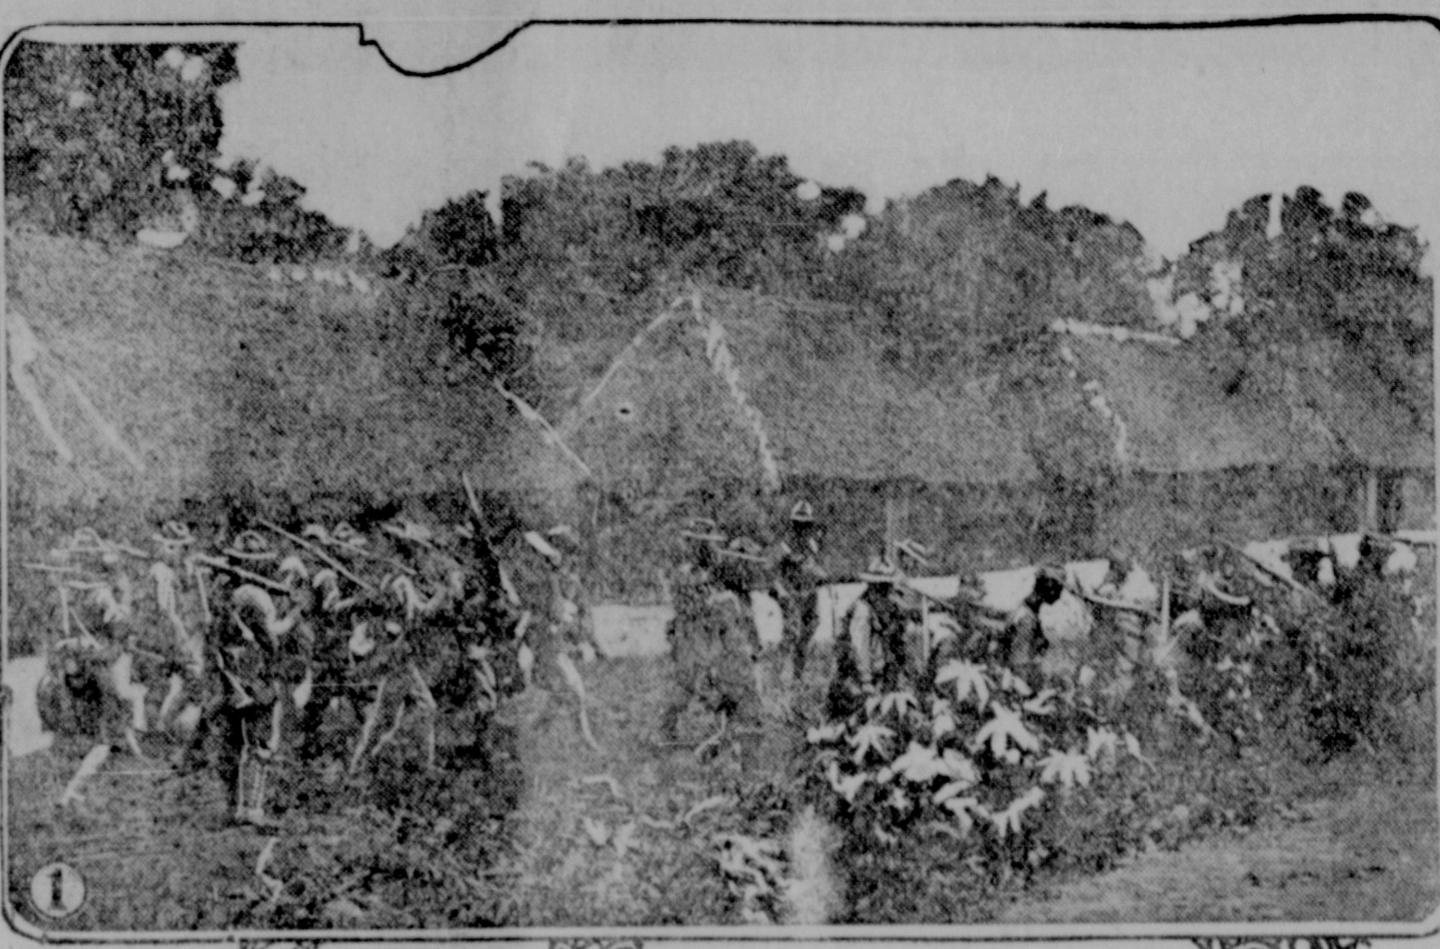

Washington, D. C., May 25.—The Supreme court recessed today until June 8. It will render decisions on June 8 and June 15 and will adjourn on the latter date until October unless the dockets at that time justify a different course.

MEXICAN SPIES AT VERA CRUZ BEING FERRETED OUT BY SOLDIERS; SCARED PEON IN FULL FLIGHT

In the top picture United States soldiers are seen on a searching expedition through the huts of the Mexican peons at Vera Cruz. It is charged that some of these natives have acted as spires, carrying information to the Federal troops massed at Soledad and other points near Vera Cruz. The other picture shows two of the soldiers chasing a scared peon who was thought to be a spy. The soldiers did not shoot at him, but overtook him in the underbrush.

TITANIC LOSS, LOST FOR GOOD

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Practically nothing may be recovered by those losing relatives or baggage in the Titanic disaster, as the result of a decision of the Supreme court.

The court held that the liability of the Oceanic Steam Navigation company against the thirteen million dollars in claims against it, as owner of the Titanic, is limited in suits against it in the United States by the American Limited Liability law of 1851, to the value of the salvage recovered and the freight and passenger money received on the voyage. That amounts in all to about $91,000. The decision in no way affects suits against owners in other countries. Justice Holmes announced the court's decision from which Justice McKenna dissented.

THE OTHER SIDE OF IT

By Associated Press.

New York, May 25.—A. L. Brougham, attorney for about two hundred Titanic claimants made the following statement today:

"The Supreme Court's decision as announced in Washington dispatches, does not go further than to hold that the case is to be judged in accordance with provisions of the American statutes. These provisions are to the effect that if the steamship company can show that the disaster occurred without its 'knowledge or trivity,' then it will be entitled to a limitation of liability to $91,000. The claimants will still contend that even under American law the steamship company is not entitled to this limitation because the accident was due largely to the fault of the steamship company itself in the designing and equipment of the ship, especially in the failure to furnish sufficient life-boats. The English courts have already held that the steamship company was responsible for the disaster."

NAME OF KING ANGERS WOMEN

By Associated Press.

London, May 25.—Shouts of "Shoot the King" filled the hall in which the meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffraget body, was held this afternoon. Every mention of King George's name was greeted with angry derision and prolonged hissing.

ROOSEVELT WILL VISIT RULER AT WHITE HOUSE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Colonel Roosevelt is to be received by President Wilson at the White House tomorrow afternoon. The Colonel was invited to lunch with the President, but found it impossible to reach Washington in time.

This visit to the White House will be his first since 1910 and the second since he stepped out of office as president of the United States. On his former call he did not see President Taft who was out of the city at the time.

The trip of Colonel Roosevelt to Washington took on a new significance today when it became known that he would hold an important conference with Progressive leaders in the Capitol while there. On his arrival Roosevelt will go directly to the Progressive headquarters where he expects to see all of the Progressives in Congress. From them he is to gain information as to the course of events in Washington during the last few months.

Colonel Roosevelt has been urged by his supporters to lose no time in taking issue with President Wilson, without waiting for the formal opening of the campaign. He has already expressed his opposition to the administration policy in regard to the Panama tolls bill and the proposal to pay $20,000,000 to Columbia. It is understood he will make severe attacks on the present administration's foreign policy and operation of the Underwood tariff bill.

WHAT IT MEANS

By Associated Press.

Oyster Bay, May 25.—A possible outcome of the Washington trip it is believed, is the meeting of Colonel Roosevelt with the Republican leaders. A report that such an event might take place reached Oyster Bay today. It is said that the presidential campaign of 1916 and the candidacy of Roosevelt on a joint Republican-Progressive ticket will be broached. The latter suggestion was scouted by Roosevelt but he would not deny specifically however that he would meet the Republican leaders in Washington. It was learned that former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, paid a visit to the Colonel last night.

VESSEL STRIKES ICEBERG

London, May 25.—The steamer Royal Edward of the Canadian Northern Steamship Company collided with an iceberg 110 miles east of Cape Race. The steamer was bound from Montreal to Avonmouth.

JOHN BULL CUTS EXPO

London, May 25.—The British government, acting contrary to the hopes held out by Premier Asquith, finally decided not to participate in the Panama exposition in San Francisco in 1915.

COPPSUTH DEAD

Buda Pest, May 25.—Francis Copsuth, son of the great Hungarian patriot, died here today, aged 73 years. He had been an invalid for many months and his death was not a surprise.

The captain in a wireless to owners today describes the iceberg as very large and said the steamer struck it while going slow in a dense fog.

The Royal Edward was twisted by the blow which was of such severity as to cause it to take water. The damage is not serious, although it will be necessary to dock the steamer on her arrival.

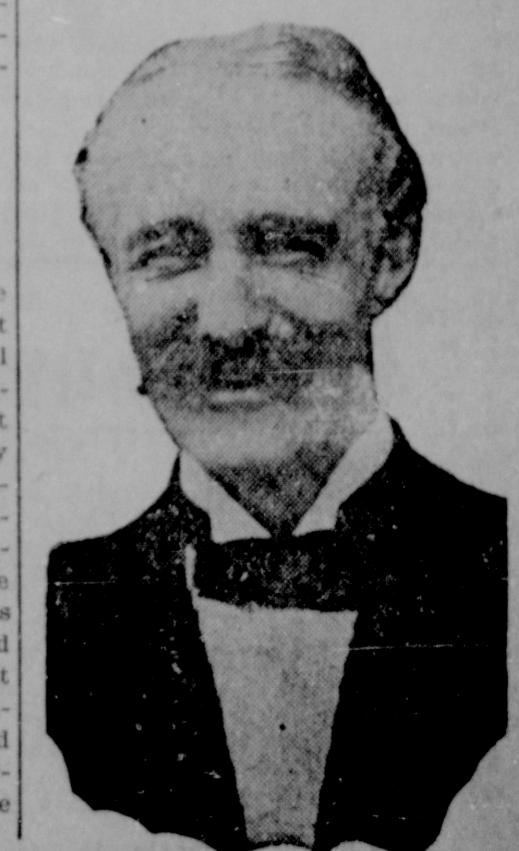

POST LEAVES BIG FORTUNE

Washington, May 25.—The will of the late Charles W. Post, of Battle Creek, who died in Santa Barbara May 9, has been filed for probate. The bulk of the $20,000,000 estate is left to the widow, Mrs. Leila Y. Post and the daughter, Marjorie Post Closs.

The stocks and bonds and other personal property of the estate is estimated at about $18,000,000.

HOME RULE BILL ON THE STRETCH

About to Pass Its Third Reading In House of Commons.TROUBLE FEARED IN IRELAND*Ulster Men Determined Their Province Shall Be Excluded From the Operation of the Bill and Threaten to Establish a Provisional Government as Soon as the Measure Leaves the House.

London, May 25. — The home rule bill is about to pass its third reading in the house of commons and in due course become a law, despite the opposition of the house of lords, whose veto under the parliament act is limited to two successive sessions. There will be a long, hard fight, however, possibly civil war in Ireland, before a parliament is set up in Dublin, for the Ulster men are determined that the Protestant portion of the province shall be excluded from the operation of the bill and threaten to establish a provisional government as soon as the bill leaves the house of commons.

The third reading was interrupted Thursday by the suspension of the sitting by the speaker, because of the obstructive tactics of the Unionists, which could not be checked. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, will again ask Premier Asquith to acquaint the house with the terms of the amending bill which he has proposed. If the premier refuses to do

TIRE EXPLODES

Hudson, N. Y., May 25. — John Maine, chief auditor of the Stafford Ink company of New York, was instantly killed at Bluestore, nine miles below this city, when the left rear tire on his car exploded and he lost control, sending the car into the ditch and being pinned under its body. His wife, who was with him, was not even scratched.

EVOLUTION OF RURAL SCHOOLS

G. A. Bricker, a former superintendent of the New Holland schools in the Rural Educator for May has an article on The Evolution of Rural Schools in Ohio, in which he says:

"Some day somebody will write a history of rural education in Ohio. An important chapter or chapters of such work will be the consideration of the progressive steps through which our new education in the rural school was reached. Not only will the new type of buildings, and the new methods of rural school administration receive consideration, but the new things that are taught will command a large share of attention. Hitherto the great men in education have given most undivided attention to the problems of the urban schools, but the great educators of today and tomorrow shall give attention to the school systems of the villages and the open country. We have begun that era in Ohio."

In this article Mr. Bricker also says:

"Among the very best centralized schools in Ohio is that located on the crossroads called Fox, near the center of Jackson township, Pickaway county. This school, after a hard educational campaign, was finally determined upon in the spring of 1911 by the voters of the township to whom the question of centralization was submitted.

Modernly Equipped Building.

"A fine, modernly equipped school building, the equal of any school building in any town of Ohio of 25,000 population, stands today a monument to the intelligence and foresight of the country people of Jackson township. The building is located six miles from the nearest town by the shortest road route. This modern rural school plant is provided with a complete water system with bubbling drinking fountains, with laboratories, and interior fire escapes, a modern steam heating plant, an up-to-date ventilation system; an auditorium, to say nothing of the well equipped recitation rooms, laboratories, library, and five acres of land for playground and agricultural purposes.

"The children from 11 one-room schools, formerly operated in the township are now transported to this magnificent central school by nine centralization wagons. The people have instinctively begun the use of the school auditorium as a social center and, at times, the whole school plant is pressed into the social service of the community.

HERE'S CHANCE FOR OPENING MOLE FARM

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Owning to the gradually decreasing number of wild fur bearing animals, mole skins have found a ready market and are valuable commercially. It is significant to the lack of attention to small business matters, however, that American moleskins are not quoted or offered on the markets. All the skins used by American furriers are imported from Europe.

Auction lists of fur dealers in London show that more than 3,000,000 moleskins were sold in 1911, 1912, and 1913. A small lot of American moleskins secured by the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, was prepared and made up by an expert furrier who pronounced them in every respect equal or superior to European skins. It seems likely, therefore, that a new industry amounting to many thousands of dollars annually might be developed in this country.

WILL HOLD STATE CONVENTION JUNE 4-5

The Prohibition State Convention is to be held in Columbus Chamber of Commerce, June 4th and 5th. State Chairman R. R. Roberts predicted that it will be the biggest convention in the history of the State organization. Such men as Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., Dr. A. S. Watkins of Ada, O., Vice-Presidential Candidate in 1808-1912, and other prominent speakers will appear on the program.

case, feeds in a new cartridge, and fires it. Thus the process repeating itself with almost inconceivable rapidity, the bullets are discharged in a continuous stream like water from a hose.

The machine gun is the most deadly weapon ever invented. The United States army possesses the most deadly of all machine guns. It is called the Benet-Mercier gun.

The Benet-Mercier gun is capable of killing 400 men a minute. It would kill 400 Mexicans a minute if they got in the way. The Mexicans also have some machine guns, but they are of a very inferior type to the American, and those half-civilized people are not capable of keeping the mechanism in as good running order as a bright, ingenious American soldier would do.

A machine gun is a device that fires rifle bullets continuously and automatically. All the soldier has to do is to pull a string or press a lever and then the bullets fly out. The man in control can play the stream of bullets over a field just as you scatter the jets of a watering can over the garden. It is impossible for any man to remain alive in an open space over which a machine gun is playing its death rain.

The only imperfection in the absolute deadliness of the machine gun was its liability to jam occasionally. That has been almost entirely overcome in the Benet-Mercier gun.

This gun weighs only 29 pounds, and needs no tripod like the older machine guns. In an emergency it might be rested on shoulder of one man and fired by another. But under ordinary circumstances the soldier who fires it lies on his stomach on the ground, holding the breech, while the muzzle is upheld at the requisite elevation by a pair of steel prongs.

Only two men are needed to operate this marvelous weapon. One aims it and pulls the trigger, while the other replaces the spent clips of cartridges with fresh ones as fast as they are used up. Two additional men are required, however, for bringing supplies of cartridge clips, each one of which contains rifle cartridges with conical bullets.

Theoretically, the gun is capable of firing 600 bullets a minute—that is to say, at the rate of 10 a second. In actual practice, however, it can discharge only 400 per minute, because some time is lost in replacing the spent clips with fresh ones.

The Benet-Mercier is an automatic gun. It is gas operated. The gas from each powder charge, following the bullet as it goes through the barrel, passes through a hole in the bottom of the barrel into the chamber beneath the latter. Its expansion in the chamber presses back a piston with a coiled spring, the recoil of which ejects the empty cartridge.

Becker Again Declared Guilty

Charles Becker, former police lieutenant of New York City, was on Friday, for the second time, declared by a jury of twelve men to be guilty of first degree murder.

The verdict of guilty returned by the jury carries with it, unless it is reversed by higher courts or rendered nugatory by the pardoning power of the state, a penalty of death in the electric chair.

Becker was once before declared by a jury of twelve men to be guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a New York gambler.

The crime, for which Becker has just been tried and convicted, was committed about two years ago and shocked the entire nation because when the incentive for the killing was made known it carried with it the knowledge of the existence of widespread corruption and graft in police circles of the metropolis of the country.

The four gunmen who were charged and convicted of the actual killing of Rosenthal, have been put to death in the electric chair. Becker, formerly one of the heads of New York's great police department, stands convicted of being the directing villain of the whole murder plot and the poor degenerates who died in terror in the death chair at Sing Sing prison, were only his instruments.

The pathetic figure of the whole awful tragedy and the revelations which followed in its train, is the loyal, untiring and devoted wife of the convicted man.

It was a sad duty which the jury had to discharge, in returning a verdict of guilty against Becker, the once defiant police lieutenant, now broken in health and in spirit, with the one loyal friend—his wife—who believes, no matter what the verdict, implicitly in his innocence.

It was hard to again wound the loyal wife who has already endured so much, it was hard to again pronounce the verdict which meant death to Becker after he has spent two years in prison, the major portion of it in the shadow of the death chamber at Sing Sing, but the jurors were compelled, under their oaths, to uphold the majesty of the law, regardless of the suffering it entailed upon them or others innocent of any connection with the crime.

The boasted "pull" of the corrupt ring in the New York police department proved weak indeed when the real test came, to thwart justice.

The verdict is a high tribute to the might of right, and that vice, no matter how firmly it may be entrenched, no matter how far its tentacles reach out, must succumb to justice when the powerful machinery of the courts is directed by fearless and honest public officials.

The murder of Rosenthal was an awful tragedy and the consequences are awful too, but rising supreme above the awful tragedy of it all, towers the commanding figure of justice which refuses to respond to the touch of vice and heeds not the appeal of the wrong-doer.

SHEEP AND GOAT.

Perhaps it is immoral
And sin's reward I'll reap—
With that I shall not quarrel—
I would not be a sheep!
On growing fleece for others
I should not fondly dote!
Believe me, friends and brothers,
I'd rather be a goat.

The William goat is frisky,
He's synical and wise;
His life is far less risky,
Less frequently he dies
Than sheep do, for his raiment
Is neither fine nor neat;
His shearing brings small payment,
He isn't good to eat.

Not lamblike to the slaughter
Is William meekly led;
Sometimes the creature's shot or
He's beaten till he's dead.
But as a usual thing he
Lives on year after year;
He is so tough and stringy
That death he need not fear.

GENERAL VILLA ALTERS PLANS

City of Zacatecas Will Be Next Point of Attack.

NOW HELD BY 4,000 FEDERALS

Rebel Cavalry, 1,500 Strong, Leaves Torreon as an Advance Guard For the Main Army—Will Push On to San Luis Potosi When Zacatecas Is Reduced—Constitutionalist Leaders Hold Conference.

Torreón, Mexico, May 25.—General Villa's advance on the city of Zacatecas, which is to be the next point of attack by the Constitutional forces, began when 1,500 rebel cavalry left this city as an advance guard for the main army.

General Villa explained his sudden decision to capture Zacatecas rather than push on toward San Luis Potosi in pursuit of the 10,000 federals under General Maas and General De Moura, who evacuated Saltillo last week.

Because the railroad track between Paredon and Saltillo had been torn up by the federals, Villa was forced to leave his trains at Paredon. To have placed his trains of supplies, water and equipment of various kinds in Saltillo would have required a least a week of road-building before an advance on San Luis Potosi could have been commenced. Since the federals had a long start, Villa said he thought it useless to attempt pursuit on foot.

In any event, he thought it bad policy to close in on San Luis Potosi, leaving 4,000 federals in his rear at Zacatecas. He said he would leave the federals at San Luis Potosi to be held in check by Generals Gonzales, Caballero, Gutiérrez and Torres. The latter are now in close proximity both to San Luis Potosi and to General Maas' federal army approaching from Saltillo.

General Villa was reminded of the fact that the Arrieta brothers have been conducting an attack on the city of Zacatecas and that General Panfilo Natera, Carranza's chief of staff, has also taken the field in that state.

With the exception of the brigade of General Pablo Ríbiles, which has been left as a garrison at Saltillo, Villa's entire army has been transferred back to Torreon. It arrived Saturday on 17 trains. Other trains brought supplies, water and hospital equipment. It is 267 miles from Torreon to Zacatecas, almost due south.

Villa believes the railroad to be passable except in places where bridges have been burned. He expects to be in the city before the end of the coming week. Then, he said, with no enemy menacing the rear, he would strike San Luis Potosi and Aguas Calientes. Plans for the campaign were discussed by Generals Carranza, Villa and Angeles, the latter being chief of the artillery division.

DISCOVERS PLOT TO KILL HUERTA

Mexico City, May 25.—A plot to kill General Huerta as he entered the Cafe Colon, a restaurant, is said to have been discovered by secret service men. As a result Huerta became enraged at General Manuel Guasque, inspector general of police, and ordered his dismissal and his arrest. Secret service men are searching for several men known to have been closely associated with General Guasque. If found they will be arrested and tried by court-martial. Conviction of the men will undoubtedly result in their execution. General Quirino was chosen as head of the police to succeed General Guasque. Quirino, who has been making an investigation of a plot against Huerta, is reported to have learned the names of the plotters and to have them under surveillance.

REBEL FORCES IN VERA CRUZ

Washington, May 25.—A Constitutional force has landed on the shores of the state of Vera Cruz, 50 miles north of the port of that name, according to a dispatch received at the Spanish embassy and by Ambassador Riano conveyed to Secretary of State Bryan.

Mr. Bryan in turn gave out the following statement: "The Spanish ambassador has communicated to the state department a message just received from the Mexican foreign office to the effect that a Constitutional force of 3,000 has landed on the coast of the state of Vera Cruz, and the foreign office explains that the movement of federal troops in that neighborhood is against the Constitutionalists and not against the Americans."

Mr. Bryan in turn gave out the following statement: "The Spanish ambassador has communicated to the state department a message just received from the Mexican foreign office to the effect that a Constitutional force of 3,000 has landed on the coast of the state of Vera Cruz, and the foreign office explains that the movement of federal troops in that neighborhood is against the Constitutionalists and not against the Americans."

MURDER CHARGE

Concord, N. H., May 25.—Eugene Wood was brought here from Henneker, charged with the murder of Howard W. Peaslee, formerly selectman of Henneker. Peaslee was shot to death Friday night last, his body being found in a small shop near his home. Wood is a farmhand and is about 40 years of age. He has been in the employ of Miss Ada M. Barnes, who manages a farm in Henneker which is owned by her father, Walter Barnes. Wood was believed to be infatuated with Miss Barnes. Peaslee was a friend of the Barnes family and a caller at their home. It is said that Wood became jealous of him. Wood denies all knowledge of the crime.

Rome, May 25.—A wireless received from the Italian envoy at Durazzo to the foreign office says that the Mussulman insurgents defeated the Albanian gendarmerie and took the Dutch officers and numerous gendarmerie prisoners. There was a panic in Durazzo and Prince William of Wied, the new king, and his family took refuge on an Italian warship. The insurgents demanded that the king should promise to pardon them or otherwise they would shoot the prisoners they had taken and sack the city. Prince William yielded to this demand, but the situation is still alarming.

The insurgents, according to the envoy's dispatch, are camped outside Durazzo, which is defended by Italian and Austrian bluejackets.

Mussulman hostility to the Christians is increasing, and widespread religious war is feared. Fighting is proceeding in the interior between the insurgents and the Albanian troops, and all telegraph communication, including the submarine cable at Avernia, has been cut off. The king has lost all his authority and prestige and is not likely to return to the throne.

LOSING WEALTH IN BIG CHUNKS

El Paso, Tex., May 25.—Officials of the Santa Eulalia Mining company, a Guggenheim property, say the property is being looted of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of silver and copper ores. A demand is to be made upon General Carranza for protection of the property. The report from Chihuahua is that 800 or more natives have been put to work in the Santa Eulalia mine by a coterie of rich Mexicans and that the ore is being sold to the rebel government to be converted into silver coin.

ROCKEFELLER IN AUTO COLLISION

Tarrytown, N. Y., May 25.—While John D. Rockefeller was giving five women an automobile ride another machine collided with his at the top of the Elmsford hills and a serious accident was narrowly averted. Mr. Rockefeller with the party were going east on the White Plains road and the second car was coming down the Hardale road.

KARG FAILURE BRINGS UP A KNOTTY QUESTION

Local Board of Education Brings Action to Determine to Whom Remaining Funds in Hands Should be Paid—Many Liens Against Contractor's Receiver.

The last suit filed in the Court of Common Pleas is that of the board of Education of Washington against Chas. E. Bidwell, receiver of Henry Karg, and several other concerns interested in the construction of the local high school building.

The plaintiffs, who are represented by Gregg, Patton and Gregg and W. B. Rogers, state that in 1911 they entered into a contract with Karg A. E. Ergensee, $1,627; The Columbus Structural Steel Company, $3, building in this city, and that the 039.43; H. G. Coffman Lumber Co., contractor nearly finished the work $2,435.16, and many other smaller before a receiver was appointed for claims.

COMMUNION SERVICES AT ST. COLMAN'S

Seventeen little children whose ages ranged from 7 to 8 years received their first holy communion in St. Colman's church yesterday at the 7:30 mass.

In the procession which wended its way from the pastor's house to the church, were forty children including the older classes who renewed their communion with this year's class.

The procession was headed by four tiny tots clad in white and wearing wreaths of green smilax.

Then followed the small girls of the first communion class and the renewals, also dressed in white, with veils of tulle and green wreaths. Tiny lads wearing suits of white preceded the boys and were followed by the older ones in suits of dark blue.

The most beautiful and important part of the services took place at the communion when the 17 children of this year's class slowly and reverently approached the altar to receive the body and blood of Jesus Christ for the first time. Their down-cast eyes and folded hands showed that they understood the dignity of the act they were performing.

The pastor's address to the children was very touching. The attention with which the children eagerly listened to every word which he uttered showed the profound impression the instruction was making on their little minds and the resolutions they were then forming to follow his advice and become perfect followers of the little infant Jesus, who had just entered their hearts.

The music was rendered by a choir of mixed voices under the able direction of Mrs. O. Kelhoffer. She had also trained the tiny tots the hymn, "O Lord I Am Not Worthy That Thou Shouldst Come to Me", and immediately after the elevation they arose in their places and sang it with voices full of joy and sweetness.

The afternoon services consisted of the renewal of the baptismal vows, conferring of rosaries and scapulars and benediction. Excellent music was again sung by the choir.

The altars were resplendent in tall lilies, carnations and green, and were softly lighted by hundreds of waxen tapers and electric lights.

FIFTH OF JUNE CLOSES THE SCHOOLS

This week, as far as routine school work, is the closing week of the school year, although closing examinations will not be held until the first of next week, and the formal closing takes place on June the fifth. Throughout all the grades promotion cards will be given out on that day.

The Eighth grade promotion exercises will be held Friday morning at nine o'clock in the High school auditorium.

F. M. M'Coy IN RACE FOR SHERIFF

Former Chief of Police, F. M. McCoy is a candidate on the Democrat ticket for the nomination for the office of Sheriff of Fayette county, his petitions being placed in circulation Saturday.

Mr. McCoy has decided to enter the contest at the urging of friends in both the city and county at large.

FIVE ARRESTS FOLLOW FIGHT

Scrap Follows Altercation on Lewis Street Saturday Night, and One Man Is Suffering From Wound on Head—Trials Set For Wednesday and Thursday.

A scrap in which five persons were involved, and which later resulted in the arrest of each of the participants, occurred on Lewis street Saturday night about eight o'clock, following an altercation which is said to have started over the delivery of goods.

As a result of the fight Fred Cripps is suffering from an ugly wound in the head, administered by a heavy oak picket, which was shattered by the blow. Those involved in the trouble are: John Cripps, Fred Cripps, Carrie Cripps, Lynn Smith and Robert Pummell.

Soon after the trouble Smith appeared at the Mayor's office and filed affidavits against John, Fred and Carrie Cripps, charging assault and battery. Chief Moore made the arrests, finding Fred Cripps unable to move owing to the wound across the head. Their trials were set for Wednesday.

Monday morning John Cripps appeared before Mayor Coffey and filed an affidavit against Lynn Smith and Robert Pummell, charging them with assault with intent to kill Fred Cripps, and charging that an oak fence picket, a piece of which is in the hands of Chief Moore, was used in the assault.

Smith soon appeared at the Mayor's office, with his attorney, H. H. Sanderson, and arrangements were made for the trial to be held Thursday. Mr. Sanderson will also represent Pummell.

Mrs. Werter Shoop added to the beauty of the service by her singing of the "Marriage Hymn."

DEMOCRATS HOLD MEETING SATURDAY

A meeting of the Democratic Central committee was held at the office of Post & Reid, Saturday afternoon. Congressman Post was home from Washington and took an active part in the proceedings, which consisted chiefly in the filling of two vacancies on the Executive committee.

Herbert Murray was named to succeed the late Sheridan Dixon, and John Robbins was chosen to succeed B. B. White, who lately moved from Jeffersonville.

The Executive committee now consists of the following men: J. D. Post, Edwin Weaver, John McDonald, W. B. Rogers, C. A. Stafford, F. M. McCoy, Herbert Murray, R. L. Noble, John Robbins and W. H. Sheeley.

It is the intention of the committee to have a complete ticket in the field. Attention of candidates or prospective candidates was called to the fact that petitions must be filed not later than June 11th.

MARRIAGE VOWS SUBJECT OF SERMON

Rev. W. B. Gage continued his series of May messages in an impressive presentation of the sacredness and rights of "The Marriage Vow," Sunday night at the Presbyterian church.

The pastor deplored the looseness in which marriage vows are held and emphasized the lack of integrity in the carrying out of vows made at the altar as compared with the rigorous keeping of every part of any business contract.

Mrs. Werter Shoop added to the beauty of the service by her singing of the "Marriage Hymn."

ANOTHER BARN FIRE MYSTERY

About noon Monday, during the absence of Frank Myers and family from their home two miles east of Good Hope, the large bank barn owned by Mr. Myers caught fire in some mysterious manner, and was entirely destroyed, together with everything it contained.

The blaze was noticed by neighbors, who rushed to the scene, while others tried to locate Mr. Myers in this city. He was soon notified of the fire and hurried home, to find the barn a pile of ruins.

No one was about the barn when the fire started, it is claimed, and the origin of the fire may never be known.

Mr. Myers' loss is a heavy one, as the barn contained grain, hay, farming implements, harness and other property.

The wind drove the flames away from the house. Scores of persons were upon the scene before the flames had consumed the large structure. Mr. Myers carried some insurance.

TWO RUNAWAYS NO ONE INJURED

Saturday night a young horse attached to a rig, broke loose near the show grounds, and kicking itself free from the rig, passed through the main part of town, with remnants of the harness and part of one shaft clinging to him.

Monday near the noon hour a horse owned by Dr. C. A. Teeters started on Court street just after Dr. Teeters had stepped from the rig, running north on Fayette and colliding with a spring wagon at the Market street intersection, where it was captured. Very little damage resulted.

ASCENSION DAY SERVICES AT BLOOMINGBURG SUNDAY

Never before in its history has Bloomingburg entertained such a large fraternal gathering as it did Sunday when an assemblage of over three hundred Masons, principally representatives from Washington and neighboring towns, together with a complement of visitors aggregating two hundred persons, thronged the little village and took part in the annual Garfield Commandery observance of Ascension day.

This feast is one observed by Knights Templar and Masons all over the world and in the Garfield Commandery, of which Washington C. H. is the headquarters, is generally observed in different places each year by invitation of representative lodges.

Sunday, the commandery was the guest of the Bloomingburg Blue Lodge of Masons.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the services opened with a short parade starting from the Masonic hall. First in the line of march came the Washington band rendering in its capable way selections appropriate to the occasion.

Following came the Blue Lodge representatives, numbering about one hundred and fifty and after them the women of the Eastern Star of whom there were more than one hundred representatives.

And then, with swords glistening and symbols aglitter under the soft caress of the sun came the Knights Templar, more than sixty in all, a pretty sight, as they marched along double-file their tall plumes forming a long line of waving white.

The march was a short one and terminated at the doors of the Methodist church. The short church service which followed was marked by an eloquent and impressive sermon by the Rev. F. M. Moore, on the subject: "Ascension Day."

After the services in the church the entire body was invited into the lodge hall and there spent a pleasant hour and a half. Light refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Among those present were representatives from Jeffersonville, S. Mt. Sterling, New Holland, Greenfield and other towns.

The services were under the supervision of Eminent Commander Elmer A. Clever. Captain General A. M. Bush conducted the line of march. The committee in charge of the observance was composed of Messrs. W. T. Holmes, W. C. Slagle, A. M. Bush and W. H. Mallow.

Monday morning they were fined the usual $5 and costs for their little celebration.

Patrolmen Baughn and Bell arrested a colored man named Mitchell.

Saturday night, and Judy and Bell arrested Jock Holmes, both men being charged with intoxication. Mitchell is employed on a farm near Seld.

MEXICAN ENVOYS SHUNTING HUERTA

Diaz Considered By Mediators For Provisional President.

CONFERENCE MAKES PROGRESS

American Delegates Say Certain Suggestions Have Been Made Looking to a Possible Solution of the Present Difficulty—Mexican Rebels to Consider Any Solution That May Be Reached.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 25.—Justice Lamar and Frederick Lehmann, the United States delegates, held a prolonged conference with the mediators, and upon leaving the conference room Justice Lamar made the following statement:

"We have received from the Mexican delegates certain suggestions representing a possible solution of the present difficulty. We, on our side, have made certain suggestions, and I can state that so far as we can see we are progressing very favorably."

Mr. Lamar added that he and Mr. Lehmann had come to see the mediators on their own initiative. It is known, on the other hand, that Justice Lamar was in direct communication with the White House, and it is therefore understood that President Wilson has to a certain extent approved the suggestions made by the delegates of General Huerta.

That the elimination of Huerta is the first offer made by the Mexican delegates, Senors Rabasa, Elguera and Rodriguez, appears to be certain. It was stated by an high official here that the name of General Felix Diaz is being seriously considered by mediators and the United States for the provisional presidency pending the holding of a constitutional election. Diaz is now within a few miles of this place, at Toronto, with a party of eight Mexicans.

The belief that he is about to be mentioned prominently in connection with the proceedings here was strengthened by the arrival at this hotel of Luis Reguena, M. G. Reguena and C. Locon, who for the past two years have been staunch supporters of Felix Diaz. Luis Reguena was imprisoned with Diaz after the latter appeared at Vera Cruz and was captured himself by General Blanquet. Both escaped with their lives through the generosity of Francis I. Madero.

It was said here that President Wilson's determination to take up the land question in Mexico and to attempt to settle it at the present conference may bring about a deadlock. The Mexican delegates are definitely determined not to allow this phase of

COLONEL GEORGE POPE HAS POINTED OUT ONE ROAD TO PROSPERITY.

The nineteenth annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers was held recently in New York. One of the principal features of the convention was the discussion of the subject of unemployment, in which took part leaders of industry representing establishments which furnish work for thousands of laborers as well as many similar institutions. Co-operation between employers and employees was the principal theme of the speech of the president of the association, Colonel George Pope, as well as furnishing a topic for a session which was devoted to talks tending toward the betterment of industry.

COL. GEORGE POPE.

FATALLY INJURED

Columbus, O., May 25.—Carl H. Bates, a local attorney, is in the hospital at Lancaster, in a critical condition, as a result of injuries sustained when an automobile in which he was riding, and driven by Lulu Parker of Logan, smashed into a telephone pole at the side of the road near Sugar Grove. The woman was uninjured. The most serious of Bates' injuries is an extended gash across the abdomen.

AN AUTO VICTIM

Cleveland, O., May 25.—Miss Bessie Phillips, 37, was killed, and C. C. McJunkin, a business man, severely bruised in an automobile accident. McJunkin lives at a hotel and Miss Phillips, whose parents live in Conneaut, O., and who recently came from Pittsburgh to work in a department store here, was also a guest at the hotel. The car struck a stone and turned over.

THE BLINJ MEET

Canton, O., May 25.—One hundred and fifty blind people gathered here from all parts of the state for the annual convention of the Ohio Federation of the Blind. The meeting opened with an address of welcome by Mayor Charles Stolberg. The new state blind pension law will be discussed and officers elected.

FARMER MURDERED

Urbana, O., May 25.—While Mrs. Ella Runyan was going through a wood near Millerstown to visit a neighbor, she stumbled upon the body of William Neal, a farmer of that vicinity. Neal had been missing since Thursday. His throat was cut and he is supposed to have been robbed and then murdered.

DOUBLE KILLING

Cleveland, O., May 25.—Because his bride of a few months insisted on spending the evening with her aunt rather than accompany him to their apartments, John Camella, 26, a painter, sent three bullets into her head, killing her instantly. He then shot himself and died in half an hour.

A portable electrolytic bleaching apparatus has been devised for household use to remove stains from textiles.

3RD DENIAL ENDS BOOM

Roosevelt Will Not Run For Governor of New York.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 25.—Colonel Roosevelt put down all rumors that he may run for governor of New York by announcing flatly that he is not a candidate for that place and would not accept the nomination if it were tendered him. "There is absolutely nothing in it," said he, speaking rather more emphatically than usual, "absolutely nothing. Does not this, my third denial, convince you of my sincerity?"

Roosevelt has persistently declined to speak publicly about 1916 and his intentions regarding that year of the presidential election, but it is well understood that a summer and fall speaking tour on the part of the colonel is to be largely an opening wedge toward that end.

Victor Murdock, Progressive leader in congress; George W. Perkins and J. Callan O'Laughlin, assistant secretary of state under Roosevelt, held an extended conference with the colonel. The anti-trust bills now before the house was the theme.

Mr. Roosevelt referred to Uncle Joe Cannon and his remarks in Illinois, that if the colonel wanted to make public any correspondence that ever passed between them he was perfectly welcome to do so. The colonel said Cannon was at liberty to publish any letter he had of his.

HOW TREES EAT.

They Seem to Digest Their Food Before Absorbing It.

Every gardener knows that a tree can be fed and made to grow with increased vigor. If proper nourishment in the form of humus, nitrogen, phosphate, etc., be placed about its roots the tree will absorb this food and grow rapidly and strongly.

But how the tree feeds is somewhat more difficult to explain. In all probability the tree digests its food first and consumes it afterward. Certain it is that the average tree has no means of consuming food as a whole, as members of the animal kingdom absorb it. It is well known that the larvae of certain insects digest their food first and consume it afterward. Observation would indicate that this is exactly what the tree does. The tiny rootlets act on the substances in the earth, dissolving and breaking them up so they can be absorbed through the root pores. In order so to be taken up the chemicals must be in liquid form and devoid of all waste.

The end of each root is armed with a horny substance, with which it can burrow through the hard soil in search of food. When food is found it is dissolved into a liquid and absorbed by the root fibers. From the root the food is carried by the sap to all parts of the tree.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Heyse as a Prize Winner.

The late Paul Heyse was probably the only man of letters who could boast of having obtained two important literary prizes with an interval of more than half a century between the awards. All the world knows that he got the Nobel prize. All the world does not know that his play, "The Sabines," was allotted a prize in a dramatic competition as long ago as 1857. He was a member of the Round Table of the good King Max of Bavaria, a sovereign whose joy it was to surround himself with men of science and letters.—Pall Mall Gazette.

OLDEST PARIS NEWSPAPER.

The Journal Des Debats and Napoleon's Famous News Order.

The oldest newspaper in Paris, the Journal des Debats, was one of the cluster of newspapers which sprung into being with the beginnings of popular government in 1789.

It was founded by a printer named Baudoin, and purported to be, as its name shows, a mere chronicle of political events. Owing to its pungent criticisms of men and affairs it soon became one of the most influential of the Paris journals.

In 1805 the paper was compelled by Napoleon to change its name and became the Journal de l'Empire. It was in the course of the correspondence which took place between Napoleon and the editor, Fieve, on the subject of the threatened censorship that the emperor gave the order which has become famous, about the policy of the newspaper, "that it should publish no news unfavorable to the government until the truth was so well known that publication was needless."

After Napoleon's retirement to Elba the paper resumed its old title. It is still edited and printed in the house where it was first started, beside the church of St. Germain de l'Auxerrois, from the tower of which the signal was given for the massacre of St. Bartholomew's eve. Of all the great Paris newspapers it has been the least affected by the modern developments of journalism, and its dignified columns are an encouragement to thoughtful reflection and a serious study of affairs.—London Times.

The Reconciliation.

The doctor was soon at the child's bedside. Remedies were administered; then the agonized pair watched the fight for life—skill and vitality on one side, fierce disease on the other. When at last the struggle ceased the gray dawn of day was looking in at the window. Life had won. The child slept.

"She is all right now," said the doctor, shaking the man's hand, which had gripped his, and feeling his heart grow warmer under the look of mute gratitude the woman turned upon him.

When he had gone the two stood side by side at the baby's crib, listening to her regular breathing. Then with one accord they turned and kissed each other. And in that kiss the icy barrier between them melted away.—Atlanta Constitution.

BOB BESCHER, SPEED KING TO GO AFTER LEAGUE RECORD

Since joining the New York Giants Bob Bescher has done very little on the base paths. This has disappointed many of his friends, who expected to see him burn up the turf. As a matter of fact, Bescher has not lost any of his old time skill or speed, but a weak ankle has held him in check. Now that the fracture has healed perfectly he is going out after a record, and Manager McGraw has encouraged him to cut loose.

THEN AND NOW

THEN.

It was just seventy years ago today that the telegraph was formally introduced. Samuel F. B. Morse, the inventor who had worked for 12 years on electro-magnetic communication, and his associate, Alfred Vail, had strung the first line between Washington and Baltimore. On the morning of May 24, 1844 Annie G. Ellsworth, daughter of the then Commissioner of Patents, burst into the United States Supreme Court Chambers in Washington where Morse and several distinguished men were gathered around his telegraph instrument, and brought the news that Congress had appropriated $30,000 for official tests of the invention, after a disheartening series of refusals.

Morse reached for the sending key and ticked off the historic message, "What hath God wrought?" Vail, in a station at Baltimore, surrounded by another group of distinguished men read the message upon a paper tape. Two days later the telegraph gave out its first public news by announcing that Polk had been nominated for the presidency in the Baltimore convention.

NOW.

Today the telegraph is one of the most important strands holding modern civilization together. It is estimated that something like half a billion news dispatches, business communications and social messages are transmitted every year over the six million miles of telegraph wire connecting practically all of the important settlements in the world. Nearly 300,000 miles of submarine telegraph also have been laid.

One invention after another led to the reading of messages wholly by sound, to the sending of as many as a dozen messages simultaneously over one circuit and in a crude form the sending of pictures over the wire by intermittently flashing beams of light.

In its most advanced form the telegraph has eliminated wires altogether and from hundreds of stations ashore and from the masts of almost every large ocean going vessel the exchange of messages through the air has lately become almost as commonplace as ordinary wire communication.

BIG BUSINESS FIGURES IN B. & O. AND C. H. & D. DEAL

Interstate Commerce Commission to Investigate the Charges that B. & O.'s Taking Over C. H. & D. Was Another New Haven "High Finance Deal" in which Late J. P. Morgan's Magic "Touch" Was Felt.

Sensational charges are made by Representative Fowler, of Illinois, against the B. & O. railroad's taking over the C. H. & D. railroad, and as a result the Interstate Commerce Commission may take a hand in disclosing the alleged "high finance", in which the golden "touch" of Morgan is alleged to have played a prominent part.

The following Associated Press dispatch from Washington, D. C. tells of the proposed investigation and the charges made:

"The Interstate Commerce Commission has, according to Representative Fowler, of Illinois, promised to make an investigation into the acquisition in 1909 of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Mr. Fowler charges that the Baltimore and Ohio was the victim of "high finance" in the transaction.

About six weeks ago Mr. Fowler laid before the commission a letter detailing the financial transaction by which the deal was consummated. In the letter the assertion was made that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was burdened with obligations totalling $100,000,000.

The investigation will be made in connection with the five-per-cent rate increase matter. Mr. Fowler believes that the investigation will reveal conditions similar to those prevailing in the New Haven case. He declares that the Baltimore and Ohio in taking over the smaller road assumed these obligations:

First and refunding four-per-cent mortgage bonds, $75,000,000; general mortgage three-per-cent bonds, $20,000,000; C. H. and D. stock, purchase price to be fixed by arbitration, estimated value $5,000,000.

"I understand," said Mr. Fowler, "that the question of business relations between the Baltimore and Ohio and the C. H. & D. and the Pere Marquette, through the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., will soon be taken up by the Interstate Commerce Commission. I believe it will reveal conditions similar to those brought out in the New Haven investigation. I think it will appear from the facts

POPE CREATES 15
MORE CARDINALS

By Associated Press.

Rome, May 25.—At a secret consistory held at the Vatican this morning, Pope Pius created fifteen new cardinals. A number of bishops of various countries were confirmed in their sees at the same time. Official announcement was made of the creation of Monsignor Bello, Patriarch of Lisbon, as cardinal. The ceremony was accompanied by the brilliancy usual to such occasions.

The names of the cardinals are: Monsignor Louis Nazarein Begin, Archbishop of Quebec; Monsignor Guisazola y 'Mendez, Archbishop of Toledo, Spain; Monsignor Domenico Serafini, Assessor of the Congregation of the Holy Office; Monsignor Renné Sevin, Archbishop of Lyons, France.

The Pope appointed Cardinal Francis Della Volpe to the office of chamberlain, in which position he will direct the affairs of the church during the conclave.

HOME RULE
GIVEN BIG MAJORITY

By Associated Press.

London, May 25.—By a vote of 351 to 274, a majority of 77, the House of Commons this afternoon passed the Home Rule Bill. The end of the hard-fought struggle came quite suddenly, the unionists refusing to debate the bill without further information as to the government's intention in regard to the proposed amending measure.

The House was seething with excitement from the time the speaker took the chair, members of the various parties cheering their champions as they entered the chamber.

FORGOT REBS
ENJOY FIRING

By Associated Press.

On Board the United States Battleship California, Mazatlin, Mexico, May 24.—By wireless to Santiago, May 25.—A twenty-one gun salute by the American and Japanese warships in the harbor, and by the Federal fortifications in the city, was misunderstood by the besieging Constitutionalists as an attack on the city, instead of a tribute to the late Dowager Empress of Japan. General Obregon's batteries opened a spirited fire on the city and a number of shells and a hall of machine gun bullets fell in the streets.

The Huerta steamer, Herrera, successfully ran the Constitutional shore battery today and landed two pieces of artillery and a quantity of provisions for the besieged Federal army. Provisions in the city are running low, however, and hunger has driven many of the poorer residents to the port. Looting is increasing and as the municipal authorities fled on the gunboat, Herrera, sometime ago the problem of dealing with a horde of petty criminals is added to the troubles of the Federal military commander.

VACATION DAYS

Washington, D. C., May 25.—The Supreme court recessed today until June 8. It will render decisions on June 8 and June 15 and will adjourn on the latter date until October unless the dockets at that time justify a different course.

ODD ACCIDENT
FATAL TO TWO

By Associated Press.

Burlington, Iowa, May 25.—Two children were almost instantly killed when a horse, struck by an automobile in which they were riding, was thrown into the tonneau. The horse struck the heads of the children, a boy of 12 and a girl of 3, with such force as to fracture their skulls. The children were driving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetger, both of whom were slightly hurt when the automobile overturned.

GENERAL OBREGON

THE OTHER SIDE OF IT

By Associated Press.

New York, May 25.—A. L. Brougham, attorney for about two hundred Titanic claimants made the following statement today:

"The Supreme Court's decision as announced in Washington dispatches, does not go further than to hold that the case is to be judged in accordance with provisions of the American statutes. These provisions are to the effect that if the steamship company can show that the disaster occurred without its 'knowledge or trivity,' then it will be entitled to a limitation of liability to $91,000. The claimants will still contend that even under American law the steamship company is not entitled to this limitation because the accident was due largely to the fault of the steamship company itself in the designing and equipment of the ship, especially in the failure to furnish sufficient life-boats. The English courts have already held that the steamship company was responsible for the disaster."

By Associated Press.

MEXICAN SPIES AT VERA CRUZ BEING FERRETED
OUT BY SOLDIERS; SCARED PEON IN FULL FLIGHT

In the top picture United States soldiers are seen on a searching expedition through the huts of the Mexican peons at Vera Cruz. It is charged that some of these natives have acted as spies, carrying information to the Federal troops massed at Soledad and other points near Vera Cruz. The other picture shows two of the soldiers chasing a scared peon who was thought to be a spy. The soldiers did not shoot at him but overtook him in the underbrush.

1. U.S. SOLDIERS IN OUTSKIRTS OF VERA CRUZ
2. CHASING MEXICAN SPYROOSEVELT WILL VISIT
RULER AT WHITE HOUSE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Colonel Roosevelt is to be received by President Wilson at the White House tomorrow afternoon. The Colonel was invited to lunch with the President, but found it impossible to reach Washington in time.

This visit to the White House will be his first since 1910 and the second since he stepped out of office as president of the United States. On his former call he did not see President Taft who was out of the city at the time.

The trip of Colonel Roosevelt to Washington took on a new significance today when it became known that he would hold an important conference with Progressive leaders in the Capitol while there. On his arrival Roosevelt will go directly to the Progressive headquarters where he expects to see all of the Progressives in Congress. From them he is to gain information as to the course of events in Washington during the last few months.

Colonel Roosevelt has been urged by his supporters to lose no time in taking issue with President Wilson, without waiting for the formal opening of the campaign. He has already expressed his opposition to the administration policy in regard to the Panama tolls bill and the proposal to pay $20,000,000 to Columbia. It is understood he will make severe attacks on the present administration's foreign policy and operation of the Underwood tariff bill.

It was suggested to Roosevelt that by remaining quiet he is permitting the Republicans to steal a march on the Progressives by getting first into the field with their criticisms of President Wilson.

The Progressive conference tomorrow was arranged following telephone communication between Representative Murdock of New York, and Representative Hinebaugh here. Mr. Murdock said Colonel Roosevelt wanted to gather with the boys and Hinebaugh immediately notified the Progressives in both houses that the Colonel wanted to confer with them. The conference will begin at ten o'clock tomorrow night at the Progressive headquarters after the Colonel has lectured before the National-Geographical society.

WHAT IT MEANS

By Associated Press.

Oyster Bay, May 25.—A possible outcome of the Washington trip it is believed, is the meeting of Colonel Roosevelt with the Republican leaders. A report that such an event might take place reached Oyster Bay today. It is said that the presidential campaign of 1916 and the candidacy of Roosevelt on a joint Republican-Progressive ticket will be broached. The latter suggestion was scouted by Roosevelt but he would not deny specifically however that he would meet the Republican leaders in Washington. It was learned that former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, paid a visit to the Colonel last night.

Buda Pest, May 25.—Francis Coppsuth, son of the great Hungarian patriot, died here today, aged 73 years. He had been an invalid for many months and his death was not a surprise.

The captain in a wireless to owners today describes the iceberg as very large and said the steamer struck it while going slow in a dense fog.

The Royal Edward was twisted by the blow which was of such severity as to cause it to take water. The damage is not serious, although it will be necessary to dock the steamer on her arrival.

HERE'S CHANCE FOR OPENING MOLE FARM

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Owing to the gradually decreasing number of wild fur bearing animals, moleskins have found a ready market and are valuable commercially. It is significant to the lack of attention to small business matters, however, that American moleskins are not quoted or offered on the markets. All the skins used by American furriers are imported from Europe.

Auction lists of fur dealers in London show that more than 3,000,000 moleskins were sold in 1911, 1912, and 1913. A small lot of American moleskins secured by the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, was prepared and made up by an expert furrier who pronounced them in every respect equal or superior to European skins. It seems likely, therefore, that a new industry amounting to many thousands of dollars annually might be developed in this country.

In this article Mr. Bricker also says:

"Among the very best centralized schools in Ohio is that located on the crossroads called Fox, near the center of Jackson township, Pickaway county. This school, after a hard educational campaign, was finally determined upon in the spring of 1911 by the voters of the township to whom the question of centralization was submitted.

Modernly Equipped Building.

"A fine, modernly equipped school building, the equal of any school building in any town of Ohio of 25,000 population, stands today a monument to the intelligence and foresight of the country people of Jackson township. The building is located six miles from the nearest town by the shortest road route. This modern rural school plant is provided with a complete water system with bubbling drinking fountains, with laboratories, and interior fire escapes, a modern steam heating plant, an up-to-date ventilation system; an auditorium, to say nothing of the well equipped recitation rooms, laboratories, library, and five acres of land for playground and agricultural purposes.

"The children from 11 one-room schools, formerly operated in the township are now transported to this magnificent central school by nine centralization wagons. The people have instinctively begun the use of the school auditorium as a social center and, at times, the whole school plant is pressed into the social service of the community.

Helps Kidney and Bladder Trouble—

Everybody Satisfied.

Everywhere people are taking Foley Kidney Pills, and are so satisfied they urge others to take them also. A. T. Kelly, McIntosh, Ala. says: "I recommend them to all who suffer from kidney troubles and backache, for they are fine." Best thing you can take for backache, weak back and rheumatism.

MACHINE GUN IS A TERROR

The machine gun is the most deadly weapon ever invented. The United States army possesses the most deadly of all machine guns. It is called the Benet-Mercier gun.

The Benet-Mercier gun is capable of killing 400 men a minute. It would kill 400 Mexicans a minute if they got in the way. The Mexicans also have some machine guns, but they are of a very inferior type to the American, and those half-civilized people are not capable of keeping the mechanism in as good running order as a bright, ingenious American soldier would do.

A machine gun is a device that fires rifle bullets continuously and automatically. All the soldier has to do is to pull a string or press a lever and then the bullets fly out. The man in control can play the stream of bullets over a field just as you scatter the jets of a watering can over the garden. It is impossible for any man to remain alive in an open space over which a machine gun is playing its death rain.

The only imperfection in the absolute deadliness of the machine gun is its liability to jam occasionally. That has been almost entirely overcome in the Benet-Mercier gun.

This gun weighs only 29 pounds, and needs no tripod like the older machine guns. In an emergency it might be rested on shoulder of one man and fired by another. But under ordinary circumstances the soldier who fires it lies on his stomach on the ground, holding the breech, while the muzzle is upheld at the requisite elevation by a pair of steel prongs.

Only two men are needed to operate this marvelous weapon. One aims it and pulls the trigger, while the other replaces the spent clips of cartridges with fresh ones as fast as they are used up. Two additional men are required, however, for bringing supplies of cartridge clips, each one of which contains rifle cartridges with conical bullets.

Theoretically, the gun is capable of firing 600 bullets a minute—that is to say, at the rate of 10 a second. In actual practice, however, it can discharge only 400 per minute, because some time is lost in replacing the spent clips with fresh ones.

The Benet-Mercier is an automatic gun. It is gas operated. The gas from each powder charge, following the bullet as it goes through the barrel, passes through a hole in the bottom of the barrel into the chamber beneath the latter. Its expansion in the chamber presses back a piston with a coiled spring, the recoil of which ejects the empty cartridge case, feeds in a new cartridge, and fires it. Thus the process repeating itself with almost inconceivable rapidity, the bullets are discharged in a continuous stream like water from a hose.

Even now a competitive test is going on at the government arsenal at Springfield to see if any gun can prove itself better than the Benet-Mercier. In this competition are entered two machine rifles from England, one from Denmark and two from the United States. Our own war department would rather have a foreign gun if it is superior to an American gun. We want the best possible weapon. The Benet-Mercier is made by a French company, though Benet, one of the inventors, is an American. Our Government has secured the right to manufacture it at Springfield, and the Colt Company at Hartford is equipped for turning it out.

Strange though it may seem, the regular army of the United States possesses no machine gun companies, simply for the reason that they have not been authorized by Congress as yet. With every regiment of infantry or cavalry in the service, however, is a so-called "machine gun platoon," consisting of 20 men detailed from different companies. Each platoon comprises two "sections". Each section has one mule, carrying one machine gun and 1,200 rounds of ammunition; also two additional mules.

HOME RULE BILL ON THE STRETCH

About to Pass Its Third Reading In House of Commons.

TROUBLE FEARED IN IRELAND

Ulster Men Determined Their Province Shall Be Excluded From the Operation of the Bill and Threaten to Establish a Provisional Government as Soon as the Measure Leaves the House.

London, May 25.—The home rule bill is about to pass its third reading in the house of commons and in due course become a law, despite the opposition of the house of lords, whose veto under the parliament act is limited to two successive sessions. There will be a long, hard fight, however, possibly civil war in Ireland, before a parliament is set up in Dublin, for the Ulster men are determined that the Protestant portion of the province shall be excluded from the operation of the bill and threaten to establish a provisional government as soon as the bill leaves the house of commons.

The third reading was interrupted Thursday by the suspension of the sitting by the speaker, because of the obstructive tactics of the Unionists, which could not be checked. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, will again ask Premier Asquith to acquaint the house with the terms of the amending bill which he has proposed. If the premier refuses to do so, the unionists may leave the chamber in a body, in which case the government will pass the bill and adjourn over the Whitsuntide holidays.

The eyes of England are now turning on Ulster, where arrangements have been made to assemble the provisional government and mobilize the well-armed volunteers. Arms and ammunition have been distributed and both are armed. Nationalist rejoicings over the passage of the bill might easily lead to a clash, and extra police have been drafted for service in the districts, and if necessary the military will be ordered to proceed to the assistance of the civil authorities in case of trouble.

KILLED WHEN TIRE EXPLODES

Hudson, N. Y., May 25.—John Malone, chief auditor of the Stafford Ink company of New York, was instantly killed at Bluestore, nine miles below this city, when the left rear tire on his car exploded and he lost control, sending the car into the ditch and being pinned under its body. His wife, who was with him, was not even scratched.

Becker Again Declared Guilty

Charles Becker, former police lieutenant of New York City, was on Friday, for the second time, declared by a jury of twelve men to be guilty of first degree murder.

The verdict of guilty returned by the jury carries with it, unless it is reversed by higher courts or rendered nugatory by the pardoning power of the state, a penalty of death in the electric chair.

Becker was once before declared by a jury of twelve men to be guilty of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a New York gambler.

The crime, for which Becker has just been tried and convicted, was committed about two years ago and shocked the entire nation because when the incentive for the killing was made known it carried with it the knowledge of the existence of widespread corruption and graft in police circles of the metropolis of the country.

The four gunmen who were charged and convicted of the actual killing of Rosenthal, have been put to death in the electric chair. Becker, formerly one of the heads of New York's great police department, stands convicted of being the directing villain of the whole murder plot and the poor degenerates who died in terror in the death chair at Sing Sing prison, were only his instruments.

The pathetic figure of the whole awful tragedy and the revelations which followed in its train, is the loyal, untiring and devoted wife of the convicted man.

It was a sad duty which the jury had to discharge, in returning a verdict of guilty against Becker, the once defiant police lieutenant, now broken in health and in spirit, with the one loyal friend—his wife—who believes, no matter what the verdict, implicitly in his innocence.

It was hard to again wound the loyal wife who has already endured so much, it was hard to again pronounce the verdict which meant death to Becker after he has spent two years in prison, the major portion of it in the shadow of the death chamber at Sing Sing, but the jurors were compelled, under their oaths, to uphold the majesty of the law, regardless of the suffering it entailed upon them or others innocent of any connection with the crime.

The boasted "pull" of the corrupt ring in the New York police department proved weak indeed when the real test came, to thwart justice.

The verdict is a high tribute to the might of right, and that vice, no matter how firmly it may be entrenched, no matter how far its tentacles reach out, must succumb to justice when the powerful machinery of the courts is directed by fearless and honest public officials.

The murder of Rosenthal was an awful tragedy and the consequences are awful too, but rising supreme above the awful tragedy of it all, towers the commanding figure of justice which refuses to respond to the touch of vice and heeds not the appeal of the wrong-doer.

America Can Aid Balkan Peace by Strengthening Her Present Establishments There

By ANDREW S. TSANOFF, Amherst Graduate and Publisher of Newspaper In Bulgaria

BULGARIA has no intention of waging war at present. She is determined to strengthen herself internally and externally.

AMERICA'S WORK FOR THE NEAR EAST THROUGH MISSIONS. SCHOOLS AND HOSPITALS HAS BEEN OF IMMENSE FORCE. BULGARIA, IN PARTICULAR, OWES THIS COUNTRY A DEBT OF PROFOUND GRATITUDE. DUTY BIDS ME ACKNOWLEDGE IT. AS A SINCERE FRIEND OF ALL THE BALKAN RACES, AMERICA CAN ONLY AID THE CAUSE OF GENERAL PEACE BY STRENGTHENING HER PRESENT ESTABLISHMENTS THERE.

Our country has a great future. We are doing our best to improve methods and implements of agriculture. We have nursery gardens and trees and plants. MILLIONS OF AMERICAN VINES, RESISTING THE PHYLLOXERA, have been planted.

Poetry For Today

SHEEP AND GOAT.

Perhaps it is immoral
And sin's reward I'll reap—
With that I shall not quarrel—
I would not be a sheep!
On growing fleece for others
I should not fondly dote!
Believe me, friends and brothers,
I'd rather be a goat.

The William goat is frisky,
He's cynical and wise;
His life is far less risky,
Less frequently he dies
Than sheep do, for his raiment
Is neither fine nor neat;
His shearing brings small payment,
He isn't good to eat.

Not lamblike to the slaughter
Is William meekly led;
Sometimes the creature's shot or
He's beaten till he's dead,
But as a usual thing he—
Lives on year after year;
He is so tough and stringy
That death he need not fear.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Rodgers and Dr. and Mrs. T. W. McFadden were motorizing guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ellis, at Melvin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Galvin (nee Bess Kerr) are moving this week to Jamestown, where Mr. Galvin assumes the active management of his paper, "The Green County Journal," and they will make their home for the present there. Their departure is sincerely regretted by a host of friends in this city, where Mrs. Galvin has always been particularly identified with manifold interests, social, musical and literary, as well as in her connection with the Public Library. Few Washington girls have ever enjoyed more general popularity and her departure leaves a decided vacancy in Washington circles, to which Mr. Galvin had also been cordially welcomed since making this city his home.

Mrs. Jesse Blackmer has returned from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Knable, in Marenco.

Mrs. John Cullen left Sunday for an indefinite stay with her mother, Mrs. Mike Dempsey, in Columbus.

Mrs. Charles Link, who was called home by the death of her father and little daughter, Mary Katharine, accompanied her mother as far as Columbus, going on to her home in Xenia Sunday.

Mrs. Z. T. Sturgeon, of Lancaster, was a guest at the home of Mr. W. W. Millikan Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bell Smith.

Mrs. W. E. Ireland returned Sunday evening from Delaware, where she visited her daughter, Miss Nell Ireland, for Monnett Day, and the O. W. U. May Day festivities.

Mrs. Ray Maynard returned Saturday night from a visit in Greenfield to attend a number of social affairs.

Mrs. J. L. Rothrock went to Cincinnati Monday to meet her little grand-daughter, Georgiana Glascock, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Albert Glascock, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Byron Gifford, in Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Glascock and Mrs. Gifford stopped in Chicago for a few days' visit, Mr. Gifford bringing the little girl on to Cincinnati.

Miss Mabel Graham visited in Xenia over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Brown, spent Sunday with friends in Leesburg.

Mr. Milton Hughey, of Chillicothe, was the Sunday guest of Mrs. J. W. Hughey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westerfield, of Houston, Texas, who were the week-end guests of Mrs. W. W. Westerfield and Mr. Jesse Millikan, enroute from an eastern trip, left Sunday afternoon for the South.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rusk were over from Zanesville spending Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Pearce Ballard. Mrs. Rusk remained for a visit.

Mr. Curtis Breech, of Dayton, visited with Washington friends Sunday.

Mr. George Sheets, of Dayton, was the guest of Mr. A. C. Henkle and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sheridan and son, William, are down from Mt. Sterling for the day, the guests of Mrs. Sheridan's mother, Mrs. Luellen Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sexton and Mrs. Lizzie Hynes are spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hynes northwest of town.

Miss Jean Howat is spending the day in Chillicothe.

Mrs. Wm. Gibson returned from Greenfield Monday to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Miller Minert.

Misses Lulu Theobald and Lulu Dunlap were visitors at Maple Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Passmore is the guest of her son, Richard Passmore, in Cincinnati.

Miss Patti Dempsey, of Columbus, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Dempsey and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Kelhoffer, over Sunday.

Miss Helen Craig was the Sunday guest of Miss Christine Craig.

Mr. Laurence Bloom, of Cincinnati, was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. Leo Katz.

Mr. Harry Gray was home from Virginia spending Sunday.

Mrs. G. A. Pavey and Mrs. A. H. Mills, of Sabina, are guests of their sister, Mrs. Paul Palmer today.

Mr. Sidney Katz spent Sunday in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of the Shaw Undertaking establishment, Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, of the Ohio Casket Co., Columbus, were motorizing guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Klever, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allen are moving from their Cherry street residence recently sold to Mr. T. C. DeWees, into one side of the Dial double house on Paint street.

Mr. John L. Barnes, of Milledgeville, was a business visitor here Monday, the first time since his recent illness.

Mr. Joseph Pratt arrived Saturday night from Panama for a six weeks' visit with his wife. On the voyage home Mr. Pratt was caught in a terrible storm, the worst that he had ever experienced in his many trips to and fro in the seven years he has been located in Panama. The steamer "Allianca" arrived in New York harbor just 24 hours late.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamilton, son Frank, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Craig, son David, were Sunday guests at Maple Grove Springs.

Mrs. J. P. Harshu was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Frazer in Xenia Sunday.

Miss Marie Heglar, Miss Laura Weaver, of Xenia, and Mrs. Tabitha Yates, of Woodlyn, are spending the week at Maple Grove Springs. Mrs. M. S. Daugherty joined them Sunday.

Mr. Frank E. Haines and family motored to the home of Mr. Marion Fishback in Leesburg, Sunday, taking Mrs. Clara Haines home from a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dunn, Miss Ethel Wolfe and Mr. Clarence Wolfe, motored over from Circleville Sunday and took back with them Mrs. Clarence Wolfe and little daughter, who has been visiting Mrs. James Hagerty for the past few days.

Mr. Warren McKenzie, of Lynchburg, is the guest of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jacobs, of Parrett's.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick E. Ross motored to Dayton Monday to be the guests of Mrs. Ross' aunt, Mrs. S. B. Bear.

Mrs. Sarah Hickson has returned from Athens, where she has been visiting for the past month.

Mrs. Earl Speaks and children are the guests of Mrs. Speaks' father, Mr. John Couch, in Bloomingburg, for the week.

Misses Helen and Beatrice Ducey, of Dayton, were the guests of Mr. James Ducey, Sunday, to be present at the first confirmation of the son, Edwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Groves and children were the guests of Mr. Groves' sister, Miss Letty Green, in Columbus Sunday.

Mrs. O. H. Robbins left Saturday for an indefinite stay with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Fultz at Leesburg.

Mrs. Marion Gibson left Saturday for Mt. Clemens, Mich., for a stay of several weeks for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. Frank M. Allen and daughter, Mrs. Claude Saxton, Richmond, Ind., have returned from Delaware, where they attended the O. W. U. May Day festivities and visited Miss Jane Saxton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kyle spent Sunday in Columbus.

MOTHER TELLS How Her Little Girl Was Restored to Health.

Mrs. Chas. Schrieber of 139 Himrod St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "My little girl was frail, sickly and all run down after having had the grippe. I was advised to give her Vinol and after the first bottle noticed an improvement. She has taken four bottles and has picked up rapidly, having gained six pounds in three weeks."

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world famed tonics

—i. e., the strength creating, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron for the blood added.

MEXICAN ENVOYS SHUNTING HUERTA

Diaz Considered By Mediators For Provisional President.

CONFERENCE MAKES PROGRESS

American Delegates Say Certain Suggestions Have Been Made Looking to a Possible Solution of the Present Difficulty—Mexican Rebels to Consider Any Solution That May Be Reached.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 25.—Justice Lamar and Frederick Lehmann, the United States delegates, held a prolonged conference with the mediators, and upon leaving the conference room Justice Lamar made the following statement:

"We have received from the Mexican delegates certain suggestions representing a possible solution of the present difficulty. We, on our side, have made certain suggestions, and I can state that so far as we can see we are progressing very favorably."

Mr. Lamar added that he and Mr. Lehmann had come to see the mediators on their own initiative. It is known, on the other hand, that Justice Lamar was in direct communication with the White House, and it is therefore understood that President Wilson has to a certain extent approved the suggestions made by the delegates of General Huerta.

That the elimination of Huerta is the first offer made by the Mexican delegates, Senors Rabasa, Elguera and Rodriguez, appears to be certain. It was stated by an high official here that the name of General Felix Diaz is being seriously considered by mediators and the United States for the provisional presidency pending the holding of a constitutional election. Diaz is now within a few miles of this place, at Toronto, with a party of eight Mexicans.

The belief that he is about to be mentioned prominently in connection with the proceedings here was strengthened by the arrival at this hotel of Luis Reguena, M. G. Reguena and C. Locon, who for the past two years have been staunch supporters of Felix Diaz. Luis Reguena was imprisoned with Diaz after the latter appeared at Vera Cruz and was captured himself by General Blanquet. Both escaped with their lives through the generosity of Francis I. Madero.

It was said here that President Wilson's determination to take up the land question in Mexico and to attempt to settle it at the present conference may bring about a deadlock. The Mexican delegates are definitely determined not to allow this phase of the situation to be brought up and it is understood they informed Justice Lamar and Mr. Lehmann that President Wilson must recede or the conference will be closed.

REBELS PLEASE THE PRESIDENT

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has learned from General Carranza that the Constitutionalists have finally decided not to send any representatives, formal or informal, to the Niagara Falls conference.

While the Constitutional chief thus destroys the hope that had been based on the likelihood of his sending representatives in an informal capacity to Niagara Falls, he has given the president to understand that the Constitutionalists will be willing to consider any solution of the Mexican problem that may be reached there.

The promise of Carranza to give the work of the mediators at least some thought is a concession from his original stand, which was that he would not take part in any mediation for the settlement of Mexico's internal differences. President Wilson and his advisers are pleased over this assurance from Carranza, and the confidence of the administration in a successful outcome of the Niagara Falls proceedings is stronger than it has been up to this time.

REFORM BUREAU WANTS BIBLE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

New York, May 25.—Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, superintendent of the International Reform bureau, said developments show that the way is clearing for the restoration of Bible reading in public schools. Dr. Crafts has been conferring with Catholics, Jews and Protestants in all parts of the world, and has obtained many documents and facts.

"At the Presbyterian preachers' meeting," Dr. Crafts said, "a resolution was adopted providing for the appointment on behalf of the Presbyterian church of a committee to cooperate with the committees of other Protestant denominations and with committees the Jews and Catholics will be requested to appoint for the purpose of adopting some plan for religious training in connection with public schools, either in school buildings themselves or in neighboring churches, or in both, by which either during a portion of the school time or at some other hour pastors and teachers of the various denominations will teach religion to the children of their own faith as an essential part of their education."

Roosevelt Will Not Run For Governor of New York.

COL. GEORGE POPE.

FATALLY INJURED

Columbus, O., May 25.—Carl H. Bates, a local attorney, is in the hospital at Lancaster, in a critical condition, as a result of injuries sustained when an automobile in which he was riding, and driven by Lulu Parker of Logan, smashed into a telephone pole at the side of the road near Sugar Grove. The woman was uninjured. The most serious of Bates' injuries is an extended gash across the abdomen.

AN AUTO VICTIM

Cleveland, O., May 25.—Miss Bessie Phillips, 37, was killed, and C. C. McJunkin, a business man, severely bruised in an automobile accident. McJunkin lives at a hotel and Miss Phillips, whose parents live in Conneaut, O., and who recently came from Pittsburgh to work in a department store here, was also a guest at the hotel. The car struck a stone and turned over.

THE BLINJ MEET

Canton, O., May 25.—One hundred and fifty blind people gathered here from all parts of the state for the annual convention of the Ohio Federation of the Blind. The meeting opened with an address of welcome by Mayor Charles Stoiberg. The new state blind pension law will be discussed and officers elected.

FARMER MURDERED

Urbana, O., May 25.—While Mrs. Ella Runyan was going through a wood near Millerstown to visit a neighbor, she stumbled upon the body of William Neal, a farmer of that vicinity. Neal had been missing since Thursday. His throat was cut and he is supposed to have been robbed and then murdered.

DOUBLE KILLING

Cleveland, O., May 25.—Because his bride of a few months insisted on spending the evening with her aunt rather than accompany him to their apartments, John Camella, 26, a painter, sent three bullets into her head, killing her instantly. He then shot himself and died in half an hour.

A portable electrolytic bleaching apparatus has been devised for household use to remove stains from textiles.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 25.—Colonel Roosevelt put down all rumors that he may run for governor of New York by announcing flatly that he is not a candidate for that place and would not accept the nomination if it were tendered him. "There is absolutely nothing in it," said he, speaking rather more emphatically than usual, "absolutely nothing. Does not this, my third denial, convince you of my sincerity?"

Roosevelt has persistently declined to speak publicly about 1916 and his intentions regarding that year of the presidential election, but it is well understood that a summer and fall speaking tour on the part of the colonel is to be largely an opening wedge toward that end.

Victor Murdoch, Progressive leader in congress; George W. Perkins and J. Callan O'Laughlin, assistant secretary of state under Roosevelt, held an extended conference with the colonel. The anti-trust bills now before the house was the theme.

Mr. Roosevelt referred to Uncle Joe Cannon and his remarks in Illinois, that if the colonel wanted to make public any correspondence that ever passed between them he was perfectly welcome to do so. The colonel said Cannon was at liberty to publish any letter he had of his.

HOW TREES EAT.

They Seem to Digest Their Food Before Absorbing It.

Every gardener knows that a tree can be fed and made to grow with increased vigor. If proper nourishment in the form of humus, nitrogen, phosphate, etc., be placed about its roots the tree will absorb this food and grow rapidly and strongly.

But how the tree feels is somewhat more difficult to explain. In all probability the tree digests its food first and consumes it afterward. Certain it is that the average tree has no means of consuming food as a whole, as members of the animal kingdom absorb it. It is well known that the larvae of certain insects digest their food first and consume it afterward. Observation would indicate that this is exactly what the tree does. The tiny rootlets act on the substances in the earth, dissolving and breaking them up so they can be absorbed through the root pores. In order so to be taken up the chemicals must be in liquid form and devoid of all waste.

The end of each root is armed with a horny substance, with which it can burrow through the hard soil in search of food. When food is found it is dissolved into a liquid and absorbed by the root fibers. From the root the food is carried by the sap to all parts of the tree.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

HEYSE AS A PRIZE WINNER.

The late Paul Heyse was probably the only man of letters who could boast of having obtained two important literary prizes with an interval of more than half a century between the awards. All the world knows that he got the Nobel prize. All the world does not know that his play, "The Sabines," was allotted a prize in a dramatic competition as long ago as 1857. He was a member of the Round Table of the good King Max of Bavaria, a sovereign whose joy it was to surround himself with men of science and letters.—Pall Mall Gazette.

"What a pity," he said with a great sigh, "that you came so early! If you had only waited for another year, my friend, we should have had fowl for our dinner, as this egg would have developed into a chicken!"

"Not long afterward the townsman returned the visit. For his entertainment the countryman cut a hard piece of bamboo rod into small pieces, salted them, roasted them in fat and served them up.

"What a pity," he ejaculated, "you came so late! If you had only come a year ago, my friend, we should have had tender bamboo shoots for dinner today!"

She Was Exact.
"I am sorry to learn your mother is ill," said the sympathizing teacher to the little girl who had come in late. "Is she sick abed?"
"Well, not quite," replied the truthful child. "She's just sick a-sofa."—Chicago Tribune.

KIDNAPED AND HELD PASTOR IN A CELLAR

Found Bound and Gagged in An Abandoned House.

St. Louis, May 25.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont was found bound and gagged with a gunny sack over his head in an abandoned house near Columbia, Ill. He was kidnaped at the height of the recent prohibition campaign. He was the leader of the drys at Westville, Ill. He was brought to St. Louis and provided with clothing, a bath and shave, and was accompanied by officers, who took him to Danville to tell his story to the grand jury. The authorities of several Illinois counties and operatives from the Burns detective agency are working in conjunction on the case. Patmont says it was a big red automobile that carried him to the deserted farmhouse near Columbia.

Shortly after the disappearance of Patmont a body was found near Canton, O., and identified by Oscar Patmont as that of a missing brother, but later it was discovered that a mistake had been made.

The preacher appears to have lost little flesh during his imprisonment. His captors kept him most of the time bound in a dark cellar, and through a trap threw him small morsels of food wrapped in newspapers. "I was fed worse than a dog," he says.

CHINESE HUMOR.

Illustrated by a Story of the Hospitality of Two Friends.

That the Chinese are possessed of a keen sense of humor is shown by the following anecdote which is related in the Spirit of the East Magazine:

"There were two men who had been friends from their school days. One lived in the town, the other in the country. After a separation lasting a whole year, the countryman decided to pay a visit to his friend the townsman. The latter gave him a hearty welcome, but the repeat he furnished consisted merely of two bowls of rice and a single egg.

"What a pity," he said with a great sigh, "that you came so early! If you had only waited for another year, my friend, we should have had fowl for our dinner, as this egg would have developed into a chicken!"

"Not long afterward the townsman returned the visit. For his entertainment the countryman cut a hard piece of bamboo rod into small pieces, salted them, roasted them in fat and served them up.

"What a pity," he ejaculated, "you came so late! If you had only come a year ago, my friend, we should have had tender bamboo shoots for dinner today!"

"I am sorry to learn your mother is ill," said the sympathizing teacher to the little girl who had come in late. "Is she sick abed?"

OLDEST PARIS NEWSPAPER.

The Journal Des Debats and Napoleon's Famous News Order.

The oldest newspaper in Paris, the Journal des Debats, was one of the cluster of newspapers which sprung into being with the beginnings of popular government in 1789.

It was founded by a printer named Baudoin, and purported to be, as its name shows, a mere chronicle of political events. Owing to its pointed criticisms of men and affairs it soon became one of the most influential of the Paris journals.

In 1805 the paper was compelled by Napoleon to change its name and became the Journal de l'Empire. It was in the course of the correspondence which took place between Napoleon and the editor, Fievere, on the subject of the threatened censorship that the emperor gave the order which has become famous, about the policy of the newspaper, "that it should publish no news unfavorable to the government until the truth was so well known that publication was needless."

After Napoleon's retirement to Elba the paper resumed its old title. It is still edited and printed in the house where it was first started, beside the church of St. Germain de l'Auxerrois, from the tower of which the signal was given for the massacre of St. Bartholomew's eve. Of all the great Paris newspapers it has been the least affected by the modern developments of journalism, and its dignified columns are an encouragement to thoughtful reflection and a serious study of affairs.—London Times.

BIG BUSINESS FIGURES IN B. & O. AND C. H. & D. DEAL

Interstate Commerce Commission to Investigate the Charges That B. & O.'s Taking Over C. H. & D. Was Another New Haven "High Finance Deal" in which Late J. P. Morgan's Magic "Touch" Was Felt.

Sensational charges are made by Representative Fowler, of Illinois, against the B. & O. railroad's taking over the C. H. & D. railroad, and as a result the Interstate Commerce Commission may take a hand in discrediting the alleged "high finance," in which the golden "touch" of Morgan is alleged to have played a prominent part.

The following Associated Press dispatch from Washington, D. C. tells of the proposed investigation and the charges made:

"The Interstate Commerce Commission has, according to Representative Fowler, of Illinois, promised to make an investigation into the acquisition in 1909 of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Mr. Fowler charges that the Baltimore and Ohio was the victim of "high finance" in the transaction.

About six weeks ago Mr. Fowler laid before the commission a letter detailing the financial transaction by which the deal was consummated. In the letter the assertion was made that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was burdened with obligations totalling $100,000,000.

The investigation will be made in connection with the five-per-cent rate increase matter. Mr. Fowler believes that the investigation will reveal conditions similar to those prevailing in the New Haven case. He declares that the Baltimore and Ohio in taking over the smaller road assumed these obligations:

First and refunding four-per-cent mortgage bonds, $75,000,000; general mortgage three-per-cent bonds, $20,000,000; C. H. and D. stock, purchase price to be fixed by arbitration, estimated value $5,000,000.

"I understand," said Mr. Fowler, "that the question of business relations between the Baltimore and Ohio and the C. H. & D. and the Pere Marquette, through the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., will soon be taken up by the Interstate Commerce Commission. I believe it will reveal conditions similar to those brought out in the New Haven investigation. I think it will appear from the facts

G. A. R. ORGANIZATIONS ATTEND SERVICES

The various bodies of the G. A. R. organizations, the R. B. Hayes post, John M. Bell post, Sons of Veterans, Ladies of the Circle, and Women's Relief Corps attended the Christian church in a body Sunday morning.

The attendance was very large, the organizations filling the entire two tiers of pews and every other seat taken.

Rev. Bowman Hostetler delivered an able sermon, taking as his subject, "Peace Through Conflict."

The choir rendered special music, the services closing with the national hymn.

MANY APPLICANTS FOR BLIND PENSIONS

The County Commissioners met Monday for the purpose of conducting an examination among applicants for blind pensions, and some 46 applications were received. Dr. R. M. Hughey examined each applicant.

When the list of those entitled to pensions is completed, the amount required to furnish relief, will be known, and a transfer of funds will probably be necessary, as the present amount in the blind relief fund is $1,484.58, while the amount paid for blind relief in 1913 was $3,049.50.

KORN HATTERS ARE TAKEN OVER

Under the name of "Korn Hatters", a team of decidedly amateurish ball players from Columbus, met the Washington Athletics yesterday, and the two hours and forty-five minutes of hit and run that followed were conspicuous by an almost continuous exhibition of miserable fielding, in different pitching and one-sided slugging.

Touted as one of the strongest, semi-pro aggregations in the state, and until yesterday a team that stood back of such a reputation, the Korn Hatters lost every claim to prestige. It is positively claimed, however, that the team did not contain more than one or two of the original Korn Hatters' line-up. Their really stiff twirler, Connors, was substituted by "bean bag artist" Dickerson, which had a great deal to do with the one-sided score of 20 to 8 in Washington's favor.

The one and perhaps the only feature of the game was the home-run laced out into the left garden by Corwin, almost before he had recovered from a knock-out sustained in a pretty second to first double.

At his own request Rene was removed from the box in the sixth and Cottrell, a promising Frankfort lad who tried out at the third sack with the locals last year, went in. Cottrell made a good showing, fanning six men in the remaining three innings and allowing but two hits.

BLOOMER GIRLS HERE WEDNESDAY

Fans will be treated Wednesday afternoon to a novel game of ball between Texter's Bloomer Girls, a female organization of national sport exponents, and Noon's Athletics. The Bloomer Girls hail from Indianapolis and are on a tour of the Buckeye state. The game will be held at Athletic park and will commence at 3 o'clock sharp.

In a two days' tournament Saturday and Sunday, the Athletics are promised a stiff struggle with the Elwoods, a fast Cincinnati team, champions of the Saturday Afternoon league. Manager Noon has not as yet arranged his batteries, but the fielding staff will remain practically unchanged.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE OUT FOR TREASURER

MUCH ELATED OVER FUTURE OF OLD ROAD

Citizens living along the line of Grasshopper railroad are much elated over several moves lately which indicate that there is soon to be some radical changes in the Grasshopper, and according to information which apparently has good foundation, the road is to be sold and converted into a traction, and is to be extended to Cincinnati.

A few days ago a special train went over the road carrying persons said to be interested in the purchase of the road.

It is believed that some definite information regarding the proposed sale of the road will be obtainable within a short time.

Jeffersonville may yet beat this city in obtaining an electric line of importance.

Married the Day They Met.

Horace Greeley and Mary Young Cheney were married the first day they met. They had corresponded for some time, a common friend who was something of a matchmaker having brought this about. She was all his fancy painted in his appearance, so much so that when he appeared before her, having proposed and been accepted by letter, she frankly told him that, although she married him, she was not in love with him. Their married life was long and happy, and the loss of his wife was a blow which Greeley did not long survive.

This picture has been commented on by all the motion picture magazines in the country and is considered the most perfect emotional story ever attempted in pictures, and will be shown tomorrow night at the Colonial theater.

The story then carries the audience through the trials of a good woman's fight for honor and her downfall. This character is made by Miss Hallor, exceptionally pathetic and heart-wringing, and she is the center of the picture's interest. The part of the governor is taken by the celebrated actor, Stewart Holmes. His acting is always of the highest standing, but this time he covers himself with glory.
